Our project has been come true during 18 months, we have undertaken the development of 3 curriculums and the training of 48 participants with the lead of Regional Telecottages Public Association of South Hungarian Plain.

Our long-term goal is, that the elderly age-group:

- becomes less vulnerable and dependent
- they can keep contact with their friends, family much cheaper
- physically disabled elders can run some official errands without travelling too
- there will be placed less burden on the busy, younger family members
- elders can find meaningful activities for every day

We trained such elderly and young group leaders in European ageing societies, who return to their own environment after the training, and there they can organize their own groups on the areas of education for older citizens, which includes the usage of infocommunicational technologies and senior contemporary helping too.

Partners of the project, members of national and international Telehouses, „Digital Well-being Program” Points, Digital Competence Centers and representatives of informational society are all very welcome in the event.
